ODYSSEY LIVE! 24 BOOKS IN 24 HOURS

Thank you for agreeing to sponsor me when I participate in ODYSSEY LIVE! a fundraising event for Halifax Humanities 101. Halifax Humanities 101 is a unique educational outreach here in Halifax, which offers the very best of university level instruction in the liberal arts to adults living below the poverty line.

Halifax Humanities 101 provides participants with a full 8-month curriculum of Humanities education free of charge. Students are given all books, and reading material, bus tickets, refreshments at class, and opportunities to attend cultural outings such as Neptune Theatre productions and Dalhousie Arts Centre events completely free of charge.

As you can imagine, such a unique program brings to its students opportunities they could only dream of before. Students are taught by gifted and committed university teachers who volunteer their time. This intense experience of cultural and intellectual enrichment helps the students to develop self-confidence, critical thinking abilities, and to feel a sense of community based not on common experiences of poverty and exclusion, but on a shared love of favourite thinkers, artists, and composers.

To make your donation towards my participation in ODYSSEY LIVE! simply visit the Halifax Humanities website: www.halifaxhumanities101.ca and click on the CanadaHelps.org logo. This will take you directly to the Halifax Humanities 101 donation page where you can make a tax-deductible donation using a major credit card. Where it says Fund Designation, scroll to ODYSSEY LIVE. In the Message/ Instruction Box, please write the team name or individual you are supporting.
